03-07

since his wife had gone to meet her Maker. He would certainly beat her, as he has done several times in the weeks past, because she had not earned any money today. Besides, it was almost as cold at home as outside, for they had only a patchy roof to cover them. The girl's little hands were almost frozen solid, so she decided