accidents involving injured or killed personnel; innocently transformed memories of the recovery of anthropomorphic dummies in military programs US conducted in the 1950s; and hoaxes that various witnesses and UFO proponents perpetrated. The psychological effects of time compression and confusion about when