

A 10x10 grid of Braille characters. Each character is formed by a unique combination of dots 1 through 6, representing the letters of the alphabet. The grid contains all 26 letters of the alphabet, with some letters appearing multiple times in different positions.