

08-12

were true "witnesses" who claimed to have actually seen debris or aliens. Most of these so-called witnesses were repeating the claims of others, and their testimony would be inadmissible hearsay in an American court. As for the several accounts from those who claimed to have seen aliens, critics identified a