

08-15

witnesses may have been exposed to. Though there had always been skeptics who had many objections to the plausibility of these accounts, it was not until the mid nineteen nineties that a strong counter-argument to the presence of aliens was widely publicized. The General Accounting Office launched an