

The image displays a 10x10 grid of 100 Braille characters. Each character is formed by a unique combination of the six Braille dots (dots 1-6). The grid shows all possible combinations of the six dots, from a single dot in the top-left to all six dots in the bottom-right. The characters are arranged in a systematic way, with each row and column representing a different set of dots.