

A 10x10 grid of 100 small, stylized human figures. Each figure is composed of a solid black circle for the head and a series of black dots for the limbs, arranged in a way that suggests a person standing with arms slightly away from the body. The figures are arranged in a regular, repeating pattern across the entire grid.