counter-argument to the presence of aliens was widely publicized. The General Accounting Office launched an inquiry and directed the Office of the Secretary of the Air Force to conduct an internal investigation. The result was summarized in two reports. The first, released in nineteen ninety-five,