10-06

patients who are self-diagnosed after they, their parents, other relatives, or friends read or hear about Tourette's from others. Tics are classified as either simple or complex. Simple motor tics are sudden, brief, repetitive movements that involve a limited number of muscle