

04-06

The image displays a 10x10 grid of 100 Braille characters. Each character is composed of dots arranged in a 3x3 grid. The dots are represented by black squares on a white background. The characters are arranged in a regular pattern, with each character occupying a single cell in the grid. The characters are formed by different combinations of dots, creating a variety of patterns that represent different Braille characters.